

January 2016 Children's Programme

Namo Buddhaya!

Passing away from the Human World (Manussa Chuthi Suttas)

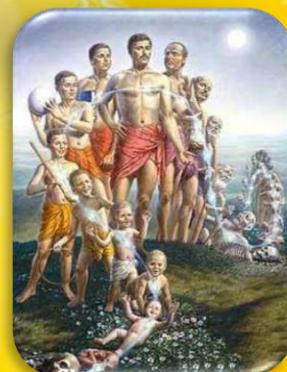

The Blessed One took up a little bit of soil in his finger nail and addressed the bhikkus thus,

“What do you think, bhikkus, which is more: the little bit of soil on my finger nail or the great earth?”

“Venerable Sir, the great earth is more. The little bit of soil that the Blessed One has taken up on his fingernail is trifling. Compared to the great earth, the little bit of soil that the Blessed One has taken up on his finger nail is not calculable, does not bear comparison, does not amount even to a fraction.”

“So too, bhikkus, those beings are numerous who, when they pass away from human world, are reborn in hell...in the animal realm...in the domain of ghosts...”

Passing away from the Human World

The Blessed One took up a little bit of soil in his finger nail and addressed the bhikkus thus,

“What do you think, bhikkus, which is more: the little bit of soil on my finger nail or the great earth?”

“Venerable Sir, the great earth is more. The little bit of soil that the Blessed One has taken up on his fingernail is trifling. Compared to the great earth, the little bit of soil that the Blessed One has taken up on his finger nail is not calculable, does not bear comparison, does not amount even to a fraction.”

“So too, bhikkus, those beings are few who, when they pass away from human world, are reborn among the human world and devas...”

Passing away from Hell

“...So too, bhikkus, those beings are numerous who, when they pass away from hell, are reborn in hell...in the animal realm...in the domain of ghosts...”

Passing away from Hell

“...So too, bhikkus, those beings are few who, when they pass away from hell, are reborn among devas and human beings.”

Passing Away from the Animal Realm

“...So too, bhikkus, those beings are few who, when they pass away from the animal realm, are reborn among human beings. But those beings are more numerous who, when they pass away from the animal realm, are reborn in hell...in the animal realm...in the domain of ghosts...”

Passing Away from the Animal Realm

“...So too, bhikkus, those beings are few who, when they pass away from the animal realm, are reborn among devas. But those beings are more numerous who, when they pass away from the animal realm, are reborn in hell...in the animal realm...in the domain of ghosts...”

Passing Away from the Domain of Ghosts

“...So too, bhikkus, those beings are few who, when they pass away from the domain of ghosts, are reborn among human beings. But those beings are more numerous who, when they pass away from the domain of ghosts, are reborn in hell...in the animal realm...in the domain of ghosts...”

Passing Away from the Domain of Ghosts

“...So too, bhikkus, those beings are few who, when they pass away from the domain of ghosts, are reborn among devas. But those beings are more numerous who, when they pass away from the domain of ghosts, are reborn in hell...in the animal realm...in the domain of ghosts...”

Sadu! Sadu!! Sadu!!!

Mahamevnawa International Meditation Centre (MIMC)

Dhamma Land, Hardings Elms Road, Crays Hill, Billericay, Essex, CM11 2UH, United Kingdom

Tele: 0126 853 3870 | Email: admin@mahamevnawaimc.org | Web: www.mahamevnawaimc.org

Monthly Children's Programme Venues:

Basildon, Every First Sunday, 2:30 pm - 5:00 pm | Watford, Every Second Sunday, 2:30 pm - 5:00 pm

